

Alpha Global Opportunities - Snapshot

Morningstar Category: Australia OE Equity World Large Blend
 Inception Date: 2/04/2007

Fund and Market Commentary

The global equity market as measured by the MSCI World Index fell 3.83% over June while the Alpha Global Opportunities Fund lagged. Over the longer term the Fund has achieved competitive performance relative to its benchmark.

Global equity markets were very volatile in June following the United Kingdom's (UK) surprise referendum vote to leave the European Union. While it was a wild ride, the UK stock market performed handsomely with the FTSE 100 returning 4.39%. This was largely driven by the stunning devaluation of the pound, increasing overseas earnings and profitability for a number of companies when converted to local currency. In contrast to the UK, European markets felt the pain in June, with Germany's DAX down 5.77% and Italy's MIB index lower by a whopping 10.14%.

United States (US) equity markets rose over June with the Dow Jones and S&P 500 indices up by 0.80% and by 0.09% respectively. The US unemployment rate rose by 0.2% in June to 4.9%, while non-farm payrolls increased by a healthy 287,000. The US inflation rate reading was 0.1% lower at 1%. Asian markets were mixed with Japan's Nikkei 225 index down a hefty 9.47% while China's Shanghai Composite fared better rising 0.45%. China's Caixin Purchasing Managers Index (PMI) fell by 0.6 points to 48.6, with manufacturers reporting a sharp deterioration in operating conditions.

Considering the prospects for assets beyond short-term noise and volatility, our preference is to take a longer term approach to the markets. This does not mean we are not actively managing the Fund. To the contrary, the structure of our Fund is always reflective of our most current assessment of market risk. In structuring the fund, Alpha Fund Managers seek to select high quality managers and blend these managers to create portfolios that can achieve consistent, absolute and relative performances, irrespective of where we are in the market cycle.

About Alpha Fund Managers

Alpha Fund Managers' investment philosophy is based on the premise that there are particular investment managers that have the ability to consistently generate "alpha" over the medium to long-term, and through all financial market cycles irrespective of any style bias (growth vs. value, large cap vs. small cap, etc.). "Alpha" in this context is defined as an investment manager's unique ability to select a portfolio of securities that differs from and outperforms its benchmark on a risk-adjusted basis. In other words, it is an investment manager's ability to beat the index. Alpha Fund Managers' investment process is based on a balanced approach to quantitative and qualitative research and analysis techniques to assess and select the underlying investment managers in each Alpha Fund Series fund. Alpha Fund Managers seek to add value by selecting investment managers demonstrating a high-level of investment conviction, unique investment processes and proven record in managing risk and generating long-term "alpha" over full market cycles. Alpha Fund Managers then blend these managers to create portfolios that can achieve consistent, absolute and relative performances, irrespective of where we are in the market cycle.
