Fund and Market Commentary

The S&P/ASX300 Accumulation Index rose 0.04% during September with the Alpha Australian Blue Chip Fund outperforming the benchmark by 1.28%. Better performing sectors were Health Care and Energy, while Telecom Services and Utilities underperformed. Since inception, the Fund has achieved outperformance relative to the benchmark.

The Australian market had another month of flat growth in September due to the falling iron ore prices. The Australian employment data continues to improve. The Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) reported that the seasonally adjusted unemployment rate stayed at 5.6%, with the participation rate increasing 0.2 points to 65.3% and 54,200 jobs added including 40,100 full-time positions, while the wage growth remained subdued. Retail turnover fell 0.6% month on month in August. The Reserve Bank of Australia kept the rate on hold at 1.5%. As mentioned in the meeting notes, growth in housing debts has been surpassing sluggish growth in household incomes for some time, which forced the prudential regulator to take actions to mitigate risks with high and rising household indebtedness. APRA has introduced stricter supervisory measures to tighten credit conditions and growth in borrowing has slowed a bit recently.

China's Caixin Purchasing Managers' Index fell 0.6 points in September to 51, but the reading is still above 50, indicating an expansion in China's manufacturing activity compared with the previous month.

Considering the prospects for assets beyond short-term volatility, our preference is to take a longer term approach to the markets. This does not mean we are not actively managing the fund. To the contrary, the structure of our fund is always reflective of our current assessment of market risk. In structuring the fund, Alpha Fund Managers seek to select high-quality managers and blend these managers to create portfolios that can achieve consistent absolute and relative performances, irrespective of where we are in the market cycle.

Investment Objective

The Alpha Blue Chip Fund aims to outperform the S&P/ASX 300 Accumulation Index (after fund fees and expenses, and before taxes) over rolling 3 to 5 year periods. The fund invests predominantly in a diversified portfolio of large market capitalisation Australian shares.

Alpha Fund Managers seek to achieve this objective by the blending of a small number of high conviction (not closet index) investment managers, each with a different investment process, in a complementary manner so as to produce consistent outperformance with similar or less risk than the benchmark.

About Alpha Fund Managers

Alpha Fund Managers' investment philosophy is based on the premise that there are particular investment managers that have the ability to consistently generate "alpha" over the medium to long-term, and through all financial market cycles irrespective of any style bias (growth vs. value, large cap vs. small cap, etc.). "Alpha" in this context is defined as an investment manager's unique ability to select a portfolio of securities that differs from and outperforms its benchmark on a risk-adjusted basis. In other words, it is an investment manager's ability to beat the index. Alpha Fund Managers' investment process is based on a balanced approach to quantitative and qualitative research and analysis techniques to assess and select the underlying investment managers in each Alpha Fund Series fund. Alpha Fund Managers seek to add value by selecting investment managers who demonstrate a high-level of investment conviction, unique investment processes and a proven record in managing risk and generating long-term "alpha" over full market cycle. Alpha Fund Managers then blend these managers to create portfolios that can achieve consistent, absolute and relative performances, irrespective of where we are in the market cycle.
