

Alpha Global Opportunities - Snapshot

Morningstar Category: Australia Fund Equity World Large Blend
 Inception Date: 2/04/2007

Fund and Market Commentary

The global equity market as measured by the MSCI World Index rose by 1.45% over February while the Alpha Global Opportunities Fund outperformed by 0.08%. Over the longer term the Fund has achieved competitive performance relative to its benchmark.

Global equity markets performed positively over February, especially in the United States (US). The Dow Jones and S&P 500 indices soared by 4.77% and 3.72%, with the former nearly reaching 21,000 points, driven by President Trump's stimulus plans of tax cuts, deregulation and infrastructure spending. However, the market was too optimistic about the Trump's plans and given his first speech to Congress, there are little detailed plans for implementation of these policies. Given the current low unemployment rate 4.8% and rising annualised inflation 2.5% of the US, the Federal Reserve are confident about the economy and said they did not need to see Republican tax reform before raising the rate, pushing the market probability of a March rate hike to 80%.

The first round of the 2017 French Presidential Election will be held in April, which is one of the most unpredictable in history, with Marine Le Pen from the National Front, who pledged to hold a referendum on European Union (EU) membership and euro, leading the polls slightly over the second place candidate Emmanuel Macron, the leader of En Marche. The result will affect the future of the EU and Britain's deal with the EU, bringing volatility to the market. European markets rose over February with the FTSE 100 rising 2.31%, Germany's DAX gaining 0.47% and Italy's MIB index 1.73% higher. In Asian markets, Japan's Nikkei 225 index went up moderately by 0.41%, while the Hang Seng Index and China's Shanghai Composite jumped by 1.63% and 2.61% respectively.

Considering the prospects for assets beyond short-term noise and volatility, our preference is to take a longer term approach to the markets. This does not mean we are not actively managing the Fund. To the contrary, the structure of our Fund is always reflective of our most current assessment of market risk. In structuring the fund, Alpha Fund Managers seek to select high quality managers and blend these managers to create portfolios that can achieve consistent, absolute and relative performances, irrespective of where we are in the market cycle.

About Alpha Fund Managers

Alpha Fund Managers' investment philosophy is based on the premise that there are particular investment managers that have the ability to consistently generate "alpha" over the medium to long-term, and through all financial market cycles irrespective of any style bias (growth vs. value, large cap vs. small cap, etc.). "Alpha" in this context is defined as an investment manager's unique ability to select a portfolio of securities that differs from and outperforms its benchmark on a risk-adjusted basis. In other words, it is an investment manager's ability to beat the index. Alpha Fund Managers' investment process is based on a balanced approach to quantitative and qualitative research and analysis techniques to assess and select the underlying investment managers in each Alpha Fund Series fund. Alpha Fund Managers seek to add value by selecting investment managers who demonstrate a high-level of investment conviction, unique investment processes and a proven record in managing risk and generating long-term "alpha" over full market cycles. Alpha Fund Managers then blend these managers to create portfolios that can achieve consistent, absolute and relative performances, irrespective of where we are in the market cycle.
