Fund and Market Commentary

The ASX200 Listed Property Index rose 4.15% during February while the Alpha Property Securities Fund outperformed the benchmark by 0.30%. Over longer periods, the Fund's performance remains competitive to the benchmark.

CoreLogic RP Data revealed that the Daily Home Value Index made a gain this month with the 5 capital city aggregate up by 1.37%. The biggest contributors were Sydney and Melbourne, where the monthly growth was 2.58% and 1.46% respectively, while Brisbane and Perth fell by 0.05% and 2.39%. Total dwelling approvals fell 2.5% month on month and dropped 13.2% over last 12 months in trend terms, indicating that buyers, particularly in Sydney, risk higher prices due to a gap between supply and demand.

The Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) has reported the enhanced GDP growth rate in the fourth quarter of 2016 as 1.1%, compared to a 0.5% decline in the September quarter. It raised the annual growth rate to 2.4%, backed by household spending, investment, higher commodity prices and exports. The ABS estimate of retail turnover grew 0.2% month on month bringing the total annualised increase to 3.2%. The Reserve Bank of Australia left the cash rate on hold at 1.5%. With the United States rate going higher, the chance of other developed economies raising rates rises and investors expected an increase in Australian cash rate as the next move, but not any time soon.

In the current environment, the Fund continues to be positioned towards stocks that offer stable and recurring high quality income streams, with a focus on high quality assets, robust underlying fundamentals and strong capital structures. In structuring the Fund, Alpha Fund Managers seek to select managers demonstrating a proven track record in managing risk and generating long-term outperformance.

About Alpha Fund Managers

Alpha Fund Managers' investment philosophy is based on the premise that there are particular investment managers that have the ability to consistently generate "alpha" over the medium to long-term, and through all financial market cycles irrespective of any style bias (growth vs. value, large cap vs. small cap, etc.). "Alpha" in this context is defined as an investment manager's unique ability to select a portfolio of securities that differs from and outperforms its benchmark on a risk-adjusted basis. In other words, it is an investment manager's ability to beat the index. Alpha Fund Managers' investment process is based on a balanced approach to quantitative and qualitative research and analysis techniques to assess and select the underlying investment managers in each Alpha Fund Series fund. Alpha Fund Managers seek to add value by selecting investment managers who demonstrate a high-level of investment conviction, unique investment processes and a proven record in managing risk and generating long-term "alpha" over full market cycles. Alpha Fund Managers then blend these managers to create portfolios that can achieve consistent, absolute and relative performances, irrespective of where we are in the market cycle.
